that the district may begin providing support to teachers in pre-k 2nd grade.

Funchess and Beane Consulting, Greene Education Services, and Common Sense Solutions were not selected due to the appearance of limited personnel presented in their respective portfolio to support the district.

The Achievement Network and The Rensselaerville Institute have the component of our current instructional program, it appears to be not to be aligned closely to our instructional model.

Insight Education is providing coaching support and being paid with private funds.
