

Information relating to vacancies including administrative and supervisory positions shall be available in the office of human resources. Employees interested in any vacant positions are asked to forward a written statement to the human resources office. Employees suggestions of qualified applicants are